Annual Holiday Party

Forty-seven people attended the Annual Holiday Party at the Fox Hill Country Club on February 6th. Eat, drink, and be merry was the order of the day as well as dancing to the music of Pete Bayo. The Hill lived up to its reputation for excellent food and beverages in an elegant setting. Voting was held for the Member Participation Award for the host of the best event of 2015. The award of a $100 dinner for two at the restaurant of their choice went to Ken and Jenny Cooney for sponsoring the annual picnic. Norman and Lisa Bourcier announced their sponsorship of a picnic at their home after the Memorial Day parade in Clarks Summit. In addition to long-stemmed roses for the ladies and a box of candy for the gents, members were presented with copies of the newly-published member directory. Now you can name that member by their face or their car! (More pics at the end of this newsletter.)

MEMBER HIGHLIGHT:

BILL PIERCE

by Karen Hornbeck

Bill not only loves vintage Triumphs but antiques. He grew up in Michigan & was part of his parents' antique business prior to heading out to Pennsylvania. His early love for antiques has returned and he has ventured into his own business, Pierce Antiques L.P.

Bill specializes in early sporting goods circa 1920-1950's and early lighting from the 1800's. Some of the sports items include early baseballs, leather football helmets (1925), wooden & brass fly reels, bait boxes & outboard motors. Skater's oil lanterns & candlesticks are some examples of his early lighting. Bill currently has a display case full of his many unique items at the Plains Antiques, 29 East Carey St., Plains, PA, 18705. If you are in the area, be sure to stop in & take a look!

Bill has also started a painting & wall-papering business. So if you want some awesome antiques or some updates to your home give Bill a call at 570-457-3477(home) or 570-954-9205(cell).

welcome!
